Domaine Pierre Boisson

Bourgogne Blanc "Murgey de Limozin" 2018 - White

980

---

Pierre is the son of Bernard of domaine Boisson-Vadot. While Bernard runs the commercial side of the business, brother Pierre and sister Anne are responsible for the vineyards and the winemaking.

Aromas of orange oil, wheat toast, pear and white flowers preface the 2018 Bourgogne Blanc Murgey de Limozin, a new lieu-dit bottling from Pierre Boisson that's medium to full-bodied, layered and enveloping with a fleshy and generous profile reflecting its location not far from Meursault Charmes.

Pierre Damoy

Marsannay "Les Longeroies" 2014 - Red

980

Domaine Pierre Damoy is located in Gevrey-Chambertin and has been producing wine from some of the best plots in the region since the 1920s.

Damoy resists the bio and lutte raisonnée labels, preferring instead to describe his vineyard management as "durable viticulture". Working with vines that range in age from 60- to 90-years-old, Damoy ploughs his vineyards regularly for weed control, eschews herbicides and uses copper minimally.

A fresh nose mixes notes of dark cherry with those of plum and soft earth. The texture of the succulent medium-full-bodied flavors that flash good length on the vanilla and a hit of caramel finish.
