

Le Bec Fin

Domaine Albert Grivault

Meursault "Clos du Murger" 2017 - White

980

This Domaine of Meursault was acquired by Albert Grivault in 1879. The wines are vinified in a very refined style of remarkable quality, which places them at the top of the wines of the appellation, rivaling even some Grand Cru wines.

The wine displays an appreciable roundness, with notes of hazelnut, fresh butter and very delicate white flowers, a very fine terroir Meursault. Delicate and unctuous on a sparkling fruit. It is a fleshy and balanced Chardonnay, very precise, with absolute fullness.

Domaine Gerard Mugneret

Vosne-Romanée 2011 - Red

980

Domaine Gérard Mugneret comprises 6 hectares of some of the most distinguished vineyards in the Côte de Nuits. The family home and cellars lie just downhill from the Domaine de la Romanée-Conti. Winemaker Pascal Mugneret descends from one of Burgundy's iconic families.

There are lovely shades of spice to the array of red berry fruit aromas that include both red currant and cherry. The round, supple and delicious flavors are relatively forward and possess that lovely quality of inner mouth perfume that adds an overall layer of attractiveness to the mildly austere finish.
