Gevrey-Chambertin 2017 - Red

The Domaine Sérafin, Père & Fils, was founded in Gevrey-Chambertin in 1947, by Stanislaus Serafin. He was a Polish citizen who left his home in the late 1930's, hoping to escape the coming war. Unfortunately, he had to fight as a soldier once in France and was taken prisoner by the Germans. Freed in 1945, he started working as a simple employee in a few local vineyards, while he bought a few affordable plots of land in Burgundy. Offers natural blackberry and raspberry scents on the nose. The palate immediately suggests impressive complexity to it. This 2017 is medium-bodied with soft tannins on the entry. The fruit veers towards dark berry, blueberry and blackcurrant with pleasant tertiary scents towards the finish. Some savoury earthy notes, saddle leather, and 50% new oak.
